Come back to campus for our 10th Reunion, June 4-7, 2009.

Enjoy activities with our class—receptions, meals, and dorm life—and many university events and tours. Bring a guest, or come by yourself: you'll have a great time! Visit our website classof99.alumni.cornell.edu to complete a pre-Reunion survey that will help us with our planning efforts. You can also see who's planning to attend and who you may want to contact to encourage to join you in Ithaca.

Registration materials will be sent to you in March 2009.

Where will the Class of '99 be staying?

Our Class headquarters and on-campus housing will be on North Campus in Risley Hall. In addition, a limited number of hotel rooms are being held for our class, on a first come, first served basis at Econo Lodge 607-257-1400 and Meadow Court 800-852-4014. Please call directly to make reservations, or you can contact the Ithaca Convention & Visitor's Bureau at www.visitithaca.com or call 800-284-8422 for other hotels and B&Bs.

When should I arrive?

Reunion activities start Thursday evening and run through Sunday breakfast. Come for the entire weekend or just part of the weekend. Different packages will be available. For information about transportation to Ithaca, go to the university Reunion web site at www.alumni.cornell.edu/reunion.

A Note about Communication:

Email and the website are our most cost-efficient means of keeping you informed. In order to contact or be contacted by other Cornellians, you may wish to register with the password-protected online alumni directory at directory.alumni.cornell.edu. You can also obtain a cornell.edu address for forwarding purposes only at www.cuconnect.cornell.edu. Email is a great way for us all to connect!

SPECIAL REUNION ISSUE

Fall 2008

Dear Classmate:

Can you believe it has been ten years since we started our senior year at Cornell? A lot has happened since we ruled the school...weddings, graduate school, world travels, new homes, newborns, and now the next big milestone: our 10th Reunion! On JUNE 4 - 7, 2009, catch up with your fellow classmates as '99ers return to the Hill. Mark your calendar now and save the date!

To help us plan our Reunion please complete the pre-reunion online survey by visiting the class website classof99.alumni.cornell.edu. Over the next nine months, as we prepare for reunion, you will receive communications from your reunion chairs with updates on registration, the weekend activities, and much more. In March, we'll send the final itinerary and registration mailing.

In other news, I'm pleased to announce an exciting new benefit for Cornell alumni: The Cornell Class Dues Payer Rewards Program. When you pay your class dues, you will receive a subscription to Cornell Alumni Magazine as usual, in addition to all of the exciting benefits of the new Class Dues Payer Rewards Program.

The Rewards Program offers discounts to your favorite Cornell activities, including the Cornell Athletic Ticket Office, the Robert Trent Jones Golf Course, and Collegetown Bagels, among many others. For a full review of the Rewards Program, see pages 2 and 3 of this newsletter or visit www.alumni.cornell.edu/classes.

Cornell alumni are, as always, crucial to the university's future, and our community starts at the class level. Dues are the primary source of revenue for our class. The dues you pay cover the costs of class newsletters, regional events, student reading projects, subscriptions to Cornell Alumni Magazine, and all the other charges related to running a class.

Your involvement is essential to the strength of our class, especially as we head toward our 10th Reunion. Hope to see you in June!

With best wishes,

Sheyna Q. Horowitz

Sheyna Horowitz, President

PS: Remember this is year four of Far Above . . . The Campaign for Cornell. Your class officers encourage you to make a special campaign gift, above and beyond the level of your normal Cornell Annual Fund gift, during the seven year campaign. Our Reunion is the perfect time to make this special gift honoring your Cornell experience. Help us to reach our Reunion Campaign goals by going "far above" in your annual giving this year.

Have you made your gift yet? For questions about the Far Above campaign, contact Jim Mazza '88, Campaign Director (607-254-7497 jma16@cornell.edu)

Please use our class website to complete our planning survey online!
